Observations:

Jesus is in the midst of His churches. (1:13 & 2:1)

Those churches deserving of rebuke were told to repent.

Smyrna and Philadelphia were not rebuked.

Smyrna and Philadelphia both had to deal with those who claim to be Jews and are not, "of the synagogue of Satan."

Spiritually strong churches (Smyrna & Philadelphia) seem to be the weakest physically.

The Nicolaitans were active in Ephesus and Pergamos.

The first three churches – the promise to the overcomer follows "he that hath and ear." In the letters to the last four churches that order is reversed.

Ephesus and Sardis were urged to "remember."

Ephesus – from where they had fallen; Sardis – how you received and heard.

Smyrna thinks they are poor, but they are rich.

Laodicea thinks it is rich, but it is poor.
